Filing Your Quarterly Contribution and Wage Reports

A Requirement for all Missouri Employers

Reports

All employers are required to file a Contribution and Wage Report each quarter to determine tax due and the amount of benefits each employee would be entitled to if unemployed. You must file quarterly reports even if you have a zero percent tax rate, are a reimbursable employer, have no tax due or paid no wages in the quarter. If you paid no wages in the quarter, indicate No Wages Paid on the report, or file a No Payroll Report online.

Interest & Penalties

Interest is charged at a variable rate on tax not paid timely, and all employers are charged a penalty for not timely filing the quarterly Contribution and Wage Report. See the chart on back for due dates and penalty amounts.

Assessments

Failure to file Contribution and Wage Reports or pay taxes when due will result in an assessment against the employer. A judgment may be filed in the circuit court where you reside or have assets. Once filed, it has the effect of a lien upon any real or personal property of the employer.
